

Nimb ū -Mantra Siddhi S ā dhana Manual

Introduction

This is the sacred manual for the practice of Nimb ū -Mantra Siddhi. The lemon is used as a living yantra, consecrated with mantra and infused with ś akti for protection, banishing, stambhana (stilling), or ā kar ṣ a ṇ a (attraction). Follow the instructions with discipline, purity, and dharmic intent.

1. Bh ū ta- Ś uddhi (Elemental Purification)

- Sit on ku ś a grass or clean cloth. Sprinkle water with mantra:
- Perform 9 pr ā ṇ ā y ā ma breaths, purifying Earth, Water, Fire, Air, Ether.
- Ny ā sa: Head – , Throat – , Heart – , Navel – , Feet – .
- Invoke deity: , , (3×).
- Seal with kavacha: (3×).

2. Lemon Yantra Preparation

- Take fresh, untouched lemon.
- Inscribe yantra according to purpose:
 - Ucc ā ṭ ana: Circle + X + 4 dots
 - Stambhana: at 4 directions
 - Ā kar ṣ a ṇ a: Downward triangle + bindu

3. Mantra Japa & Infusion

- Ucc ā ṭ ana (Banishing): — 108× for 7 days, face South.
- Stambhana (Stilling): ... — 108× for 11 nights, face NE.
- Ā kar ṣ a ṇ a (Attraction): — 108× for 21 days, face East.
- Always close with:

4. Disposal (Visarjana)

- Ucc ā ṭ ana: 7th day → discard in river or cremation ground, don ’ t look back.
- Stambhana: 11th day → bury under tree or at crossroads.
- Ā kar ṣ a ṇ a: 21st day → immerse in flowing water, offer 5 red flowers + sweets.
- After disposal, bathe and recite Hanum ā n C ā l ī s ā or Vi ṣ ṇ u Sahasran ā ma.

5. Rules of the Cycle

- Only one yantra at a time.
- If a day is missed, restart with fresh lemon.
- Never eat or keep consecrated lemons.
- Maintain discipline and dharmic intent.

Closing

On the final day, sit silently, chant 11 ×:

(May all this be offered into Brahman).