

---

IV. Stambhana Māraṇa – The Freezing Death Ritual

This is a paralytic form of Māraṇa that doesn't cause immediate death but gradually immobilizes the body, halts neural signals, and may result in coma, paralysis, or vegetative state.

Used often in Nāga Tantra, Kāli Kula, and Rudra Yamala traditions, this is known to “freeze the soul” inside the body—trapping the victim in living torment.

---

I. Prerequisites & Preparation

Conditions:

Must be done during Paush, Māgha, or Kārtik months (cool, Vāta-Kapha dominant)

Nighttime or Brahma Muhūrta hours

Ideal Nakṣatra: Mṛgaśīrṣa, Ārdrā, or Āśleṣā

Best during Krishna Pakṣa Ashtamī or Chaturdaśī

📍 Location: Forest shrine, near termite mound or snake pit (symbolic of neural and muscular system)

🧘 Required: Silence + Fast for 12 hours before starting

---

🔮 II. Ingredients List

| Material                               | Purpose                                      |
|----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| Mercury (Pārada) or frozen camphor     | Represents stillness + nerve poisoning       |
| Ice or water from a corpse-washed body | Freezing prāṇa circuit                       |
| White mustard & poppy seeds            | Inducing dullness, sleep, and neuroblock     |
| Sandalwood paste + crushed lotus seeds | Stambhana symbolism (sedation and stillness) |
| Snake skin or molted scale             | Nerve sheath representation                  |
| Victim’s hair or cloth (worn)          | Bio-resonance                                |
| Iron ring from a paralyzed person      | Transfer of stagnant karma                   |
| Black thread dipped in castor oil      | Nervous channel binding                      |

---

🔮 III. Astro-Magical Alignment

Step    Alignment

Tithi    Krishna Ashtami or Chaturdashi

Lagna    Must fall in the Bādhaka Sthāna (obstructive house)

Day    Saturday or Monday

Moon    In 8th or 12th from victim's birth moon

Hora    Shani or Budha Hora

---

IV. Ritual Steps

Step 1: Puppet + Liquid Preparation

Mix sandalwood paste, poppy, lotus seed powder.

Soak black thread in castor oil.

Prepare a vessel of water with corpse-washed water or frozen camphor.

Place the puppet (made of white cloth and victim's personal item) in front.

Bind the limbs with oiled thread: “यथा बन्धो जीवः सदा स्थिरो भवतु स्वाहा”

Step 2: Mantra & Freezing Bind

Place the puppet inside an earthen pot. Add snake skin and iron ring.

Chant:

ॐ ह्रीं स्तम्भ स्तम्भ मम रिपुं जडं कुरु कुरु स्वाहा॥

Om Hrīm Stambha Stambha mama ripum jaḍam kuru kuru svāhā

Repeat 108x holding right palm over the pot.

After every 9th repetition, sprinkle cold water or ice shavings on the puppet.

Optional: Place mercury in a small capsule and bury it beneath the puppet.

Step 3: Ritual Completion – Stambhana Lock

Seal the pot with black wax and chant: “न स्पन्देते, न चलते, न जीवनं लभते”

Bury the pot under a Peepal or barren tree.

If visible paralysis or coma is desired, snap one limb of the puppet while chanting: “तव गात्रं पङ्गुं भवतु, स्थिरं स्थिरं स्वाहा”

---

V. Signs It's Working

Victim begins experiencing:

Muscular cramps, stiffness

Tremors followed by numbness

Difficulty walking or lifting limbs

Slurred speech, confusion

Eventual neural collapse or vegetative state

---

VI. Countermeasures

| Method | Action |
|--------|--------|
|--------|--------|

Recovery of buried pot      Must be unburied before 21 days and immersed in flowing water

Nila Saraswati Stotra   Recite 11x daily with blue lotus incense

External Stambhana antidote ritual   Performed by expert Aghori with Panchamukha Rudra Homa

Nāga Dosha healing   Bathe in water infused with Nāga Mantras and Bilva leaves

---